

ESGENA at ESGE Days 2019

Check out what's in store for the nursing community...

Thursday – Saturday: Hands-on training

Check out the offerings on registration and secure your spot as spaces are limited.

Friday: live demonstrations

08:30 – 10:30 ESGENA-Co-chair Marjon de Pater, The Netherlands

11:00 - 13:00 ESGENA-Co-chair Wendy Waagenes, Denmark

14:30 - 16:00 ESGENA-Co-chair Irene Dunkley, United Kingdom

Transmission from the Hospital in Prague, Czech Republic

Friday April 5, 2019

On Friday, learn as a team and join us for the ESGE and ESGENA sessions. The focus will be on such topics as the endoscopy working environment, management of endoscopy units, sedation and hygiene. Pro-contra debates will discuss competing responsibilities, emergency and outbreak management, education, specialization, advanced roles and much more...

14:30 – 16:30

Thematic session Endoscopy working environment: Practical tips for everyday working in the endoscopy unit

Chairs: Rodrigo Jover (Spain), Ulrike Beilenhoff (Germany), Søren Meisner (Denmark)

Guideline Review: ESGE-ESGENA guidelines in reprocessing and disinfection

Speaker: Ulrike Beilenhoff, Germany

14:30 – 15:00

Just cleaning? Training for endoscope reprocessing

Speaker: Ulrike Beilenhoff, Germany

15:40 – 15:48

Quality parameters for sedation and patient monitoring

Speaker: Ferran Gonzalez-Huix Llado, Spain

15:00 – 15:08

Outbreak management in the endoscopy unit

Speaker: Ulrike Beilenhoff, Germany

15:48 – 15:55

Sedation in endoscopy is a quality indicator

Speaker: Ferran Gonzalez-Huix Llado, Spain

15:08 – 15:16

Quality items for endoscopy services

Speaker: Roland Valori, United Kingdom

15:55 – 16:02

Sedation in endoscopy is a bad quality indicator

Speaker: Matthew Rutter, United Kingdom

15:16 – 15:24

How to manage waiting lists?

Speaker: Roland Valori, United Kingdom

16:02 – 16:09

How to train young endoscopists?

Speaker: Tomas Hucl, Czech Republic

15:24 – 15:32

How to select endoscopists for advanced endoscopy?

Speaker: Peter D. Siersema, Netherlands

16:09 – 16:16

NAPS: Which training is necessary?

Speaker: Ulrike Beilenhoff, Germany

15:32 – 15:40

How to work cost-effectively in the endoscopy unit?

Speaker: Peter D. Siersema, Netherlands

16:16 – 16:23

How to organize a 24 hours service in endoscopy?

Speaker: Søren Meisner, Denmark

16:23 – 16:30

17:00 - 18:30

Hot session: Team approach (ESGENA-ESGE joint session)

Practical tips for everyday work in the endoscopy unit

Chairs : Marjon de Pater (Netherlands), Ulrike Beilenhoff (Germany), Thierry Ponchon (France), Sören Meissner, Denmark

DEBATE 1: Assistance

- Who is doing what? The nurse or the endoscopist?
- Patient preparation, Polypectomy, EMR, ESD, guide wire manipulation, stent release, PEG insertion, discharge, etc.

DEBATE 2: Emergency

- Do we need and how to organise a 24 hours service in endoscopy?
- Where should emergency procedures have been performed?
- How to organize emergencies for ERCP?

DEBATE 3: Education

- Should the endoscopy nurses and the endoscopist be sub-specialized?

DEBATE 4 Outbreak management

- who is responsible? who is in charge?

DEBATE 5 Advanced roles for nurses

- Sedation, functional tests, capsule reading, patient information, bowel cleansing, nurse endoscopists, etc.

ESGENA Spring School

Saturday April 6, 2019

Are you young (or young at heart) and motivated? Then join us on Saturday at the Spring School! Patient care and assistance in endoscopy require specialised knowledge and skills. The ESGENA Spring School Sessions combine

- discussions on case studies and worst-case scenarios
- state-of-the-art lectures on the nurse's role in therapeutic endoscopy
- round table discussions about different concepts of advanced roles in GI Nursing.
- Meet the expert in the hands-on area

Patient care in Endoscopy – an opportunity to reflect and learn from others' experiences – supporting improved patient care

08:30 – 10:30

Chair: Irene Dunkley (United Kingdom) Marjon de Pater (The Netherlands)

Learning from real scenarios brings home the lessons we can learn from practice, reflecting on these accounts brings home the challenges of delivering care in the ever-evolving endoscopy specialty. Various solutions can be discussed in small groups or in plenary raising controversial and challenging situations. Collegial and supportive discussion is an integral part of this session.

The session addresses the following areas:

- Patient care in endoscopy – Focus on quality and safety
- Keep cool in Emergency situations in Endoscopy
- Proper reaction – Prevention of adverse events and complications
- Sleep well and safely - questions about sedation and patient monitoring
- From novice to expert – education and training in Endoscopy
- Management of units – skill mix, responsibilities and resources

11:00-13:00

Nurses' role in therapeutic Endoscopy

Chairs: Fanny Durand (France), Anita Jorgensen (Norway)

Correct preparation for colonoscopy – prerequisites for an efficient colonoscopy

Speaker: Jadranka Brlijak, Croatia
11.00-11.20

Complications in PEG - burried bumper. leaks, blockages, etc.

Speaker: Britt Hein Bang Bagger, Denmark
12:00-12:20

Painless colonoscopy – Equipment, endoscopy technique, patient care and sedation

Speaker: Saša Puconja, Slovenia
11.20-11.40

Pseudo-cyste drainages – different approaches

Speaker: Marianna Arvanitakis, Belgium
12.20-12.40

Hemostasis – Keep cool

Speaker: Denise Schäfer, Austria
11.40-12.00

ERCP – the nurses role is the key

Speaker: Wendy Waagenes, Denmark
12.40 -13.00

14.30-16.00

Advanced roles – different opportunities all over Europe

Chair: Irene Dunkley (United Kingdom), Wendy Waagenes (Denmark)

PEG – percutaneous puncture by nurses – a national training module with bio simulators

Speaker: Ulrike Beilenhoff, Germany
14.30-14:50

Nurse Endoscopist EUS practice –an innovative service - the impact on services and patient care.

Speaker: Laura Dwyer, United Kingdom
14:50-15:10

Nurse Endoscopists –Experiences from different European Countries

A round table discuss the following aspects

- Training and education
- legal requirements and frameworks
- daily routine
- Limitations and resources

Speaker of round table discussion

- Irene Dunkley, United Kingdom
- Ingrid Karström, Sweden
- Susanne Grandahl, Denmark
- Anita Boersen, The Netherlands

15.10-16.00